

Openings are currently available in these courses. They meet the Utah license renewal continuing educational requirements for the May 31, 2011 deadline, 11 credit hours per course. The courses are approved for Wyoming license renewal as well.

Australian-Maitland Approaches to Orthopaedic Manual & Manipulative Physical Therapy
Time Tested, Evidence Based

Upper Quarter Differential Diagnosis: Cervical Spine and Peripheral Joint Treatment

May 6-7, 2011

Lower Quarter Differential Diagnosis: Lumbar Spine and Peripheral Joint Treatment

May 20-21, 2011

All courses run Friday evening, 6-9 p.m. & Saturday, 9 a.m.-6 p.m.

Location: The location for the courses in May is subject to change depending on class size. The location will be less than 45 minutes drive from the original location either in Park City, another location in Salt Lake City, or at the original location, U of U PT School, Salt Lake City, UT

Both of these courses will be offered again in July and August

Upper Quarter Differential Diagnosis: Cervical-Thoracic Spine and Peripheral Joint Treatment

July 15-16, 2011

Location: Canyon Rim Physical Therapy, Salt Lake City, UT

Lower Quarter Differential Diagnosis: Lumbar-Low Thoracic Spine and Peripheral Joint Treatment

August 12-13, 2011

Location: Canyon Rim Physical Therapy, Salt Lake City, UT

Instructor: Krista J. Clark, PT, FAAOMPT

Course participants must be licensed physical therapists. Enrollment is limited.

Tuition: $375 per course; $350 per course if you register for both

Download the PDF brochure for more information

UPTA & WY Approved
Continuing Education for Physical Therapists

11 credit hours per course